

The year end break is over and JK Racing Asia Series teams are back at Sepang Circuit with potential drivers for the 2012 season.

Eurointernational, 2011 JK Racing Asia Series Team Championship Winners, have confirmed to be in Malaysia from 16th to 18th to test their newly confirmed driver, Tan Wei Ron.

Also at the circuit are 2010 Formula BMW Team Championship Winners, Eurasia Motorsport who are completing their 6-day January test on the same dates. They will also be back at the circuit in February for another nine days of testing on 6th – 8th, 16th – 18th and 24th – 26th.

Both teams still have seats available and for further information on Eurointernational please contact Antonio Ferrari at euro5055@aol.com and for information on Eurasia Motorsport please contact Mark Goddard at mark@eurasiamotorsport.com.
