

Motorsport Asia Background

Motorsport Asia Ltd (MAL) was established in 1996 with the vision to fully develop the motorsport industry in the Asian region. The company is synonymous with motorsport in Asia and has been at the centre of its continued growth.

Being the region's leading fully integrated motorsport focused company, its extensive network of international expertise, combined with local know-how, places MAL on the cutting edge of developments in the motorsport business.

MAL provides a complete range of motorsport services, ranging from Race Management, liaison with racing circuits and regulatory bodies; motorsport Technical expertise and knowhow for manufacturers and teams; Freight Movement and transportation of race cars and equipment by sea, land and air; providing Media and Public Relations services and providing Hospitality, Catering and Entertainment services.

In addition Motorsport Asia offers consultancy services for the construction or enhancement of motorsport facilities.

Motorsport Asia Ltd is the organiser and commercial rights holder of the GT Asia Series and JK Racing Asia Series. MAL also established and operates the Porsche Carrera Cup Asia Series. Ties with international media, regional motorsport authorities and circuit owners have helped Motorsport Asia to create the Asian Festival Of Speed Event (AFOS) and the company has continued to run events with various series' that are sanctioned and conform to the strict regulations laid down by the FIA.

MAL also has in-house TV production and distribution facilities, currently filming, producing and distributing both live and delayed programming. The Asian Festival Of Speed TV shows are broadcast globally in over 100 countries on both satellite and terrestrial channels. AFOS is visited by media organisations from around the world and articles featuring the event and its championships are published globally.

Motorsport Asia operates a dedicated website www.afos.com which is regularly visited by people in over 112 countries
